Diweddariad Prifathro / Headteacher Update:

Our football team played in the Tom Roberts Cup on Thursday wearing their new football kit. They performed really well, playing some excellent matches and working as a team! Da iawn! A HUGE THANK YOU to Mr. and Mrs. Boswell who have sponsored our kit and to Ms. Johnson who organised the ordering and delivery of the kit. The children were so excited to be competing in their new kit.

This week, Reception have been making stop motion animations, retelling the story of 'I'm going on a bear Hunt.' Nursery and Reception have been looking at clocks, seeing how many towers can be built in 30 seconds and looking at daily timetables. Da iawn!

Years One and Two have been working on multiplication word problems and learning about Amelia Erhart and her achievements in aviation history. Ardderchog!

Years Three and Four have been learning how to write an informal letter to share their learning about the Tudors with a focus on Henry VIII. They have also been learning about shape and space.

Year Five and Six have been learning about ratio and proportion, have created a WW2 timeline and have been finding out about evacuees lives during WW2. Gret! What a busy week!

Have a good weekend. Let's hope the weather improves!
